Re: In re Online DVD Rental Antitrust Litigation, No. 4:09-md-2029 PJH (JCS)

Dear Judge Spero:

Plaintiffs and Defendant Netflix respectfully request an additional two-day extension of time as to the filing of our joint letter brief following the September 1, 2010 in-person meet and confer of lead trial counsel pursuant to the Court's Notice of Reference and Order re Discovery Procedures (Dkt. 46, July 14, 2009) ("Order"). On September 7, 2010, the Court granted a one-week extension for the filing of the joint letter. Since that time, the parties have continued to diligently meet and confer in order to avoid bringing the matter before this Court.

As explained in the parties' previous submission (Dkt. 207), lead trial counsel for the parties, Robert Abrams for Plaintiffs and Jonathan Jacobson for Netflix, met in person, along with other counsel, on the agreed date of September 1, 2010, when both lead counsel were in Oakland for a class certification hearing in this matter. The parties had a very productive meet and confer, during which a number of issues were resolved and/or narrowed. Counsel wish to continue to work together during the coming week following the holiday weekend to resolve their outstanding disputes, which concern a number of issues that require further collaboration as to technical and other issues. Those discussions are ongoing as the parties continue to actively discuss these matters and exchange proposals.

Accordingly, the parties request an extension of two-days, until Thursday, September 16, 2010, for the parties to file their joint letter brief setting forth any disputes that may remain at that time.

Respectfully Submitted,

By: /s/ Dylan Liddiard
